

I am opposed to the use of cel phones on airplanes. The users seem to have no consideration for those around them. This is a time when peace and quiet are valuable. If there are to be cel phones then they should be restricted as to seats available, put them all together.